The pair still won't talk about their relationship, but that didn't stop American pop artist, Robert Delgadillo from painting the pair on canvas.

And get -this - the artist portrays the couple as Adam and Eve.

Hello! Magazine has a short item in a web story that reports that Delgadillo has placed the sexy couple in a picture and they have now "been immortalized on canvas in a painting."

The picture portrays the gorgeous couple as Adam and Eve, and is called 'Temptation.'

The Temptress

That means Angelina Jolie naked, and Brad Pitt naked. And - if it follows the Biblical story accurately, Angie will be the temptress and Brad will succumb to her misguided wishes.

Or is that reading too much into it?
